Who We Are

Crossroads is a not-for-profit counseling and education center. Established in 1998 at Martha Bowman Memorial United Methodist Church, it is affiliated with congregations in the Middle Georgia area. Believing that wholeness is possible when the mind, body, and spirit work together, our staff of professionals is committed to a holistic approach to counseling.

The highly trained, licensed and experienced counselors at Crossroads Counseling Center assess problems, explore solutions and provide a secure framework as you seek personal and spiritual growth in your life.

In response to our Christian heritage, it is the mission of Crossroads Counseling Center to minister to individuals, couples and families by fostering healing and hope through faith-based Christian counseling, support and education. Crossroads is open Monday through Friday. Evening appointments are available on Monday, Tuesday and Thursdays. A free monthly financial budgeting class is offered the 2nd Tuesday of each month at 6 pm.

Crossroads is a 501(c)(3) organization so contributions are tax deductible. All proceeds will be used to help Crossroads keep its current location at 144 Pierce Avenue and to replenish the Crossroads benevolent fund.
