Who We Are

Crossroads is a not-for-profit counseling and education center. Established in 1998 at Martha Bowman Memorial United Methodist Church, it is affiliated with congregations in the Middle Georgia area. Believing that wholeness is possible when the mind, body, and spirit work together, our staff of professionals is committed to a holistic approach to counseling.

All of the highly-trained, licensed and experienced counselors at Crossroads Counseling Center assess problems, explore solutions and provide a secure framework as you seek personal and spiritual growth in your life.

The mission of Crossroads Christian Counseling Center, Inc. is to serve all people who are affected by life's challenges through Christian-based counseling, support and education. Crossroads is open Monday through Friday. Evening appointments are available on Monday, Tuesday and Thursdays.

Our clinical staff includes licensed marriage and family therapists, professional counselors, a clinical psychologist and psychiatrists.

A free monthly financial budgeting class is offered on the 2nd Monday of each month at 6 pm.

Crossroads is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.

The funds raised from the tournament will enable Crossroads to continue to meet our clients' needs and serve their families.

Honorees

Dr. Don and Mary Evelyn Feibelman Co-Founders of Crossroads Christian Counseling Center

Dr. Don is the Medical Director of Crossroads Christian Counseling Center and The Methodist Home. Mary Evelyn is the Founder and Director of P.A.L.S. (Peers Advocating Leadership and Service) in Bibb County.

Almost twenty years ago in 1997, they saw a need for a Christian-based counseling center in the Macon area. The result is Crossroads Christian Counseling Center, which today includes clinicians and staff who daily give hands and hearts to that vision.
