Who We Are

Crossroads is a not-for-profit counseling and education center. Established in 1998 at Martha Bowman Memorial United Methodist Church, it is affiliated with congregations in the Middle Georgia area. Believing that wholeness is possible when the mind, body, and spirit work together, our staff of professionals is committed to a holistic approach to counseling.

All of the highly-trained, licensed and experienced counselors at Crossroads Counseling Center assess problems, explore solutions and provide a secure framework as you seek personal and spiritual growth in your life.

The mission of Crossroads Christian Counseling Center, Inc. is to serve all people who are affected by life's challenges through Christian-based counseling, support and education. Crossroads is open Monday through Friday. Evening appointments are available on Monday, Tuesday and Thursdays.

Our clinical staff includes licensed marriage and family therapists, professional counselors, a clinical psychologist and psychiatrists.

A free monthly financial budgeting class is offered on the 2nd Monday of each month at 6 pm.

Crossroads is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.

The funds raised from the tournament will enable Crossroads to continue to meet our clients' needs and serve their families.

Honoree

Dr. Rick Lanford aka "Daddy Rick"

North Central District Superintendent – United Methodist Church, South Georgia Conference

Dr. Lanford served as Vice President of Development for The Methodist Home for 13 years before moving full-time as the President of The Foundation of The Methodist Home in 2007. He was fondly known as "Daddy Rick". In 2014, he became the District Superintendent for the North Central District of the South Georgia Conference. As a child welfare advocate, he has served as a Commissioner for the Georgia Children's Trust Fund Commission and as a board member for Georgia Association for Homes and Services for Children Foundation. He currently serves both as the Senior Chaplain for the Macon-Bibb County Sheriff's office and Homeland Security for the state of Georgia.

He has been a friend of Crossroads for over 18 years supporting the ministry and providing for those in need. His passion for helping individuals and families who struggle with life's challenges is evident in the way he supports our ministry. We are grateful for his service.
